Let's Learn About Henson Trusts Workshop

Presented by: Krista Clendenning, J.D., T.E.P

Associate Lawyer with Tradition Law

Henson Trusts, also known as discretionary trusts are a useful tool for Will and Estate Planning when you have a family member with a disability. Krista will provide an overview of what this type of trust is and why it's beneficial; how to set up properly as part of your will; the role and responsibilities of the trustee; taxation; how it relates to other disability benefits and programs and more. There will be time at the end for questions and answers. It would be helpful if you can provide your questions in advance.
